The register of shareholders shall be sufficient evidence of the shareholders' shareholding of the Company. A shareholder shall enjoy such rights and assume such obligations as attached to the class of the shares held by him/her. The shareholders holding the same class of the shares shall have the same rights and obligations.

The Company shall enter into a share depositary agreement with the share registrar, and examine the information of substantial shareholders and the changes in their shareholdings (including the pledges of the shares) on a regular basis, to keep abreast of its shareholding structure.

Article 32 The register of shareholders shall register the following particulars or shareholders in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the HK Listing Rules:

- (i) the name (title), address (domicile), occupation or nature of each Shareholder;
- (ii) the class and number of the shares held by each Shareholder;
- (iii) the amount paid or payable for the shares held by each Shareholder;
- (iv) the serial number of the share certificate held by each Shareholder;
- (v) the date on which each shareholder is registered as a Shareholder;
- (vi) the date on which each shareholder ceases to be a Shareholder.

The shareholders' register serves shall be sufficient evidence of the shareholders' shareholdings of the Company unless there is evidence to the contrary.

Subject to these Articles and other applicable regulations, upon transfer of any shares of the Company, the name of the transferee shall be listed in the register of shareholders as the holder of such shares.

Article 33 The Company may maintain the register of shareholders of H Shares overseas and entrust the administration thereof to an overseas agent in accordance with the understanding and agreement reached between the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council and the overseas securities regulatory authorities. The original register of shareholders of H Shares listed on the SEHK shall be kept in Hong Kong.

The Company shall maintain at its domicile a copy of the register of shareholders of H Shares. The entrusted overseas agent shall always ensure that the original and copies of the register of shareholders of H Shares are consistent.

Where the original and duplicate of the register of shareholders of H Shares are inconsistent, the original shall prevail.

Article 34 The Company shall maintain a complete register of shareholders, which shall include the following parts:

- (i) the register of shareholders maintained at the Company's domicile other than those specified in items (ii) and (iii) of this Article;
- (ii) the register of shareholders of H Shares maintained in the place of the overseas stock exchange where the shares are listed;
- (iii) the register of shareholders maintained in other places as the Board of Directors considers necessary for listing purposes.

Article 35 The each part of the register of shareholders shall not duplicate with each another. The transfer of the shares registered in a certain part of the register of shareholders shall not, during the continuance of the registration of such shares, be registered in any other part of the register of shareholders.

Changes and corrections to each part of the register of shareholders shall be carried out in accordance with the laws of the place where each part is kept.

Article 36 With respect to the shareholders of H Shares, where two or more persons are registered as the joint shareholders of any shares, they shall be deemed as joint shareholders of the share concerned, subject to the following provisions:

- (iv) with respect to the joint shareholders of any shares, only the person whose name ranks first in the register of shareholders shall be entitled to the delivery of the share certificates relating to such shares, or to receiving the notices from the Company. Any notice given to such person shall be deemed as delivered to all the joint shareholders; any of such joint shareholders may execute a power of attorney, but if more than one of such joint shareholders attend any shareholders' meeting in person or by proxy, the votes of the shareholder with the higher priority, whether exercised in person or by proxy, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint shareholders, and the priority shall be determined by the order in which the names of the shareholders rank in the register of shareholders in respect of such shares.

Where any of the aforementioned joint shareholders gives receipts to the Company in terms of any dividends, bonuses or return of capital payable to the joint shareholder in respect of such shares, such receipts shall be deemed as valid and effective receipts delivered by such joint shareholders.

Article 37 When the Company convenes a general meeting, distributes dividends, commences liquidation or participates in other activities which require the verification of the identities of shareholders, the Board of Directors or the convener of the general meeting shall decide the date of record. The shareholders whose names are registered on the register of shareholders at the close of trading on the date of record shall be entitled to the relevant rights.

Article 38 In the event of loss of any share certificate (the “Original Share Certificate”) held by any shareholder recorded in the register of shareholders or any person who requests the Company to enter his/her name in the register of shareholders, such shareholder or person may request the Company to issue a new share certificate for the shares evidenced by the Original Share Certificate (the “Relevant Shares”), in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Company Law if he/she is a shareholder of domestic shares, or in accordance with the laws, rules of stock exchange and other applicable regulations of the place where the original register of shareholders of H Shares is maintained if he/she is a shareholder of H Shares.

Where a shareholder of H Shares listed in Hong Kong applies for the issuance of a new share certificate, the following conditions shall be satisfied:

- (i) the applicant shall submit an application in a standard form prescribed by the Company, with a notarial certificate or statutory declaration attached, which shall set forth the reasons for the application, the description and evidence of loss of the Original Share Certificate, and a statement that no other person is entitled to be registered as the shareholder of the Relevant Shares;
- (ii) the Company shall not have received any declaration from any person other than the applicant who claims to be entitled to be registered as the shareholder of the Relevant Shares before the Company decides to issue a new share certificate;
- (iii) if the Company decides to issue a new share certificate, the Company shall publish an announcement in qualified newspaper designated by the Board of Directors with an announcement period of ninety (90) days, during which, the announcement shall be re-published at least once every thirty (30) days;
- (iv) before publishing the announcement about issuance of a new share certificate, the Company shall submit a copy of the announcement to be published to the stock exchange on which it is listed, and may publish such announcement only after receiving the response from the stock exchange, which confirms the publication of the announcement upon the display of such announcement thereof on the stock exchange. Such announcement shall be displayed on the stock exchange for a period of ninety (90) days. If the application for a new share certificate is not approved by the registered holder of the Relevant Shares, the Company shall deliver a copy of the announcement to be published to such shareholder;

- (v) if the Company has not received any opposition to the issuance of a new share certificate upon expiration of the ninety-day period set forth in items (iii) and (iv) above, the Company may issue a new share certificate at the request of the applicant;
- (vi) upon the issuance of a new share cer

Article 40 If a shareholder wishes to access or obtain any information or document described in the preceding article, such shareholder shall submit written proof of the class and number of the shares held by it/him/her to the Company, and upon verification of it/him/her identity as a shareholder, the Company shall make available such information and documents as requested by such shareholder.

Article 41 A shareholder shall have the right to petition the people's court to invalidate any resolution of the general meeting or the Board of Directors of the Company that violates the relevant laws and administrative regulations.

If any general meeting or Board Meeting has been convened or held any vote in violation of the procedural rules set forth in relevant laws and administrative regulations or herein, or adopted any resolution in violation of the provisions of these Articles, any shareholder may petition the people's court to revoke the relevant resolution within sixty (60) days following the adoption thereof.

Article 42 If any Director or senior executive violates the relevant laws and administrative regulations or the provisions of these Articles in performing his/her duties in the Company, causing any loss to the Company, the shareholder(s) individually or collectively holding one percent (1%) or more of the shares of the Company for more than 180 consecutive days shall have the right to request in writing the Supervisory Committee to bring an action in the people's court. If the Supervisory Committee violates the relevant laws and administrative regulations or the provisions of these Articles in performing its duties in the Company, causing any loss to the Company, any shareholder may request in writing the Board of Directors to bring an action in the people's court.

If the Supervisory Committee or the Board of Directors refuses to bring an action after receiving a written request from the relevant shareholder(s) as prescribed in the aforementioned paragraph, or fails to bring such action within thirty (30) days upon receipt of such written request, or if the matter is of great urgency and the failure to bring such action immediately will cause irreparable damages to the Company, the relevant shareholder(s) shall have the right to directly bring an action in the people's court in their own name for the benefit of the Company.

If any other person infringes on the legitimate rights and interests of the Company, causing any loss to the Company, the shareholder(s) referred to in the first paragraph of this Article 42 may bring an action in the people's court pursuant to the provisions of the first two paragraphs this Article 42.

Article 43 If any Director or damages the interests of any shareholder in violation of the relevant laws and administrative regulations or the provisions of these Articles, the relevant shareholder may bring an action in the people's court.

Article 44 The shareholders of the Company shall have the following obligations:

- (i) to abide by the laws, administrative regulations and these Articles;
- (ii) to pay capital contribution for the shares subscribed for in the prescribed method of subscription;
- (iii) not to withdraw the shares except as otherwise provided for by the laws and regulations;
- (iv) not to abuse their shareholders' rights to jeopardize the interests of the Company or other shareholders; and not to abuse the status of the Company as an independent legal person and the limited liability of shareholders to jeopardize the interests of any creditors of the Company; and
- (v) to fulfill other obligations as stipulated by the laws, administrative regulations, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and these Articles.

If a shareholder of the Company abuses the rights of shareholders and causes losses to the Company or other shareholders, such shareholder shall be liable for compensation in accordance with the law. A shareholder who abuses the independent status of the Company as a legal entity and the limited liability of shareholders to evade debts and seriously damages the interests of the Company's creditors shall be jointly and severally liable for the debts of the Company.

Article 45 Any shareholder of five percent (5%) or more of the voting shares of the Company that pledges any shares held by him/her shall report to the Company in writing on the date of such pledge.

Article 46 The controlling shareholders and de facto controllers of the Company shall not use their affiliation to harm the interests of the Company. Anyone who violates the regulations and incurs losses to the Company shall be liable for compensation.

The controlling shareholders and the de facto controllers of the Company shall owe duties of good faith to the Company and the shareholders of the Company's public shares. The controlling shareholders shall exercise their rights as capital contributors in strict compliance with the law. The controlling shareholders shall neither damage the legitimate rights and interests of the Company and the public shareholders by means of profit distribution, asset reorganization, outbound investment, capital appropriation and loan guarantee nor damage the interests of the Company and the public shareholders by their controlling status.

Article 47 The general meeting is the authority of power of the Company, and shall exercise the following duties and powers in accordance with the law:

- (i) to decide the Company's operational policies and investment plans;
- (ii) to elect and change the Directors and Supervisors who are not employees' representatives and decide on the remunerations of such Directors and Supervisors;
- (iii) to deliberate and approve the reports of the Board of Directors;
- (iv) to deliberate and approve reports of the Supervisory Committee;
- (v) to deliberate and approve the proposed annual financial budgets and final accounts of the Company;
- (vi) to deliberate and approve the profit distribution plans and loss recovery plans of the Company;
- (vii) to resolve on the increase or reduction of the registered capital of the Company;
- (viii) to resolve on the issuance of bonds of the Company;
- (ix) to resolve on the merger, division, dissolution, liquidation or change in the form of the Company;
- (x) to amend these Articles;
- (xi) to resolve on the Company's engagement and removal of the accountants;
- (xii) to deliberate and approve the guarantees as stipulated in Article 48 hereof;
- (xiii) to deliberate and approve the Company's purchase or disposal of major assets within one year with the aggregate transaction amount exceeding thirty percent
- (xiiiv

- (xvii) to resolve on the acquisition of the Company's shares under the circumstances prescribed in items (i) and (ii) of Article 24 hereof;
- (xviii) to deliberate other matters required to be resolved by the shareholders' general meeting pursuant to the laws, regulations, departmental rules, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and these Articles.

The duties and powers of the general meeting set forth above shall not be exercised by the Board of Directors or other institutions and individuals on behalf of others by way of authorization. Save for the above, the general meeting may authorize or entrust the Board of Directors and/or a person authorized by the Board of Directors to handle issues that are authorized or entrusted by the general meeting, provided that the laws and regulations as well as the mandatory requirements of the relevant laws and regulations of the listing place are not violated.

Article 48 The Company shall get approval from the general meeting if it provides:

- (i) any external guarantee after the aggregate amount of external guarantees provided by the Company and its controlled subsidiaries has exceeded fifty percent (50%) of the latest audited net assets of the Company;
- (ii) any external guarantee after the aggregate amount of external guarantees provided by the Company has exceeded thirty percent (30%) of the latest audited total assets of the Company;
- (iii) any external guarantee that will result in the aggregate amount of external guarantees provided by the Company within one (1) year exceeding thirty percent (30%) of the latest total audited assets of the Company;
- (iv) any guarantee for a guaranteed party whose asset liability ratio exceeds seventy percent (70%);
- (v) any single guarantee with its amount in excess of ten percent (10%) of the latest audited net assets of the Company; or
- (vi) any guarantee for any shareholder or de facto controller or their affiliates of the Company.

In deliberating a proposal regarding the provision of any guarantee for any shareholder or de facto controller of the Company, such shareholder or any shareholder subject to the direction of the de facto controller shall abstain from voting on such proposal, and such proposal shall be adopted with the approval of a majority of votes held by other shareholders present at the general meeting.

If the Board of Directors or general meeting of the Company violates the approval authority or approval procedure in respect of guarantee, the Directors and shareholders who violate the approval authority or approval procedure shall be jointly and severally liable for such violation, and if a guarantee is provided in violation of such approval authority or approval procedure, the Company shall have the right to hold the responsible persons liable depending on the losses and risks resulting from, and severity of, such violation.

Article 49 The general meeting consists of annual general meeting and extraordinary general meeting. The annual general meeting shall be held once every year within six (6) months from the end of the previous financial year.

Article 50 The Company shall convene an extraordinary general meeting within two (2) months upon occurrence of the following events:

- (i) when the number of Directors is less than the number stipulated in the Company Law or two-thirds (2/3) of the number specified in these Articles;
- (ii) when the unrecovered losses of the Company amount to one-third of the total amount of its paid-up share capital;
- (iii) at the request of shareholder(s) individually or collectively holding more than ten percent (10%) of the Company's shares;
- (iv) when the Board of Directors considers necessary;
- (v) when the Supervisory Committee proposes to convene such meeting;
- (vi) any other circumstances stipulated by the laws, administrative regulations, departmental regulations, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed or these Articles.

Article 51 A general meeting shall be held at the domicile of the Company or such other place as designated in the notice of the general meeting. A general meeting shall be held at the designated venue in the form of on-site meeting. On the premise of ensuring the legality and effectiveness of the general meeting, the Company may also provide convenience for the shareholders to attend the meeting through network, video, telephone or other means, subject to the relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, and any shareholder's participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person through the above means.

The place and time of an on-site meeting shall be convenient for the attendance by the shareholders, and the place of such on-site meeting shall not be changed without justifiable reason after the delivery of notice of general meeting. If it is necessary to change the place of meeting, the convener shall publish an announcement at least two (2) working days prior to the date of on-site meeting, and explain the reason.

Section III Convening of General Meeting

Article 52 The Board of Directors may convene the general meetings. Subject to the provisions of these Articles, the Supervisory Committee or shareholder(s) who individually or collectively hold more than 10% of the shares in the Company for more than 90 consecutive days may convene general meetings themselves.

Independent non-executive Directors shall be entitled to propose to the Board of Directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting. Regarding the proposal requesting to convene an extraordinary general meeting by the Independent Non-executive Directors, the Board of Directors shall, in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and these Articles, inform in writing whether it agrees or disagrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting within ten (10) days upon receipt of the proposal.

If the Board of Directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, the Board of Directors shall issue a notice to convene the meeting within five (5) days after it passed a resolution thereon. If the Board of Directors refuses to convene an extraordinary general meeting, the Board of Directors shall explain the reason and publish an announcement.

Article 53 The Supervisory Committee shall be entitled to propose to the Board of Directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting, and shall put forward its proposal to the Board of Directors in writing. The Board shall, pursuant to the laws, administrative regulations and these Articles, inform in writing whether it agrees or disagrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting within ten (10) days upon receipt of the proposal.

If the Board of Directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, it shall issue a notice to convene the meeting within five (5) days after it passed a resolution thereon, provided that no change shall be made to the proposal in such notice without the consent of the Supervisory Committee.

If the Board of Directors does not agree to convene an extraordinary general meeting, or fails to respond within ten (10) days upon receipt of the proposal, the Board of Directors shall be deemed to be unable or fail to perform its duties to convene a general meeting, and the Supervisory Committee may convene and preside over a general meeting on its own.

Article 54 The shareholder(s) individually or collectively holding ten percent (10%) or more of the Shares shall be entitled to request the Board of Directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting, and shall put forward such request to the Board of Directors in writing. The Board shall, pursuant to the laws, administrative regulations

If the Board of Directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, it shall issue a notice to convene the meeting within five (5) days after it passed a resolution thereon, provided that no change shall be made to the request in such notice without the consent of the relevant shareholders.

If the Board of Directors does not agree to hold the extraordinary general meeting or fails to respond within ten (10) days upon receipt of the request, the shareholder(s) individually or collectively holding ten percent (10%) or more of the Shares shall be entitled to propose to the Supervisory Committee to convene an extraordinary general meeting, and shall put forward such request to the Supervisory Committee in writing.

If the Supervisory Committee agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, it shall issue a notice to convene the meeting within five (5) days upon receipt of the request, provided that no change shall be made to the request in such notice without the consent of the relevant shareholders.

In the case of failure to issue the notice of general meeting within the prescribed period, the Supervisory Committee shall be deemed as failing to convene and preside over the general meeting and the shareholder(s) individually or collectively holding ten percent (10%) or more of the Shares for ninety (90) or more consecutive days may convene and preside over such meeting by such shareholder(s).

Article 55 If the Supervisory Committee or any shareholder(s) decides to convene a general meeting by itself/themselves, the Supervisory Committee or the relevant shareholder(s) shall notify the Board of Directors in writing, and perform the relevant filing procedures with the relevant securities regulatory authorities in the place where the Company is located and the relevant stock exchange in accordance with the applicable regulations.

Prior to the publication of announcement of the resolutions adopted at such general meeting, the shareholders convening such meeting shall hold at least ten percent (10%) shares in the Company.

Article 56 If the Supervisory Committee or any shareholder(s) convenes a general meeting by itself/themselves, the Board of Directors and the Secretary of the Board of Directors shall give cooperation and the Board of Directors shall provide the register of shareholders as of the date of record.

Article 57 The necessary costs of any general meeting convened by the Supervisory Committee or any shareholder(s) shall be borne by the Company.

Section IV Proposals and Notices in Respect of General Meeting

Article 58 A proposal shall fall within the scope of powers of the general meeting, with topics for discuss and specific resolutions, and comply with the relevant laws, administrative regulations and the provisions of these Articles.

Article 59 When a general meeting is convened by the Company, the Board of Directors, the Supervisory Committee and shareholder(s) who individually or collectively hold(s) three percent (3%) or more of the Shares shall be entitled to make proposals to the general meeting.

The shareholder(s), who individually or collectively hold(s) three percent (3%) or more of the Shares, may submit ad hoc proposals in writing to the convener ten (10) days before the convening of the general meeting. The convener shall issue a supplemental notice of the general meeting within two (2) days upon receipt of the proposals to announce the contents of the ad hoc proposals.

Except for circumstances provided in the above paragraph, the convener, after issuing the announcement regarding the notice of the general meeting, shall neither modify the proposals stated in the notice of general meetings nor add new proposals.

The general meeting shall not vote for or pass a resolution on any proposal not stated in the notice of general meeting or not complying with the provisions of Article 58 hereof.

Article 60 The convener shall notify all shareholders by written meeting notice twenty-one (21) days before the date of convening the annual general meeting and fifteen (15) days before the date of convening the extraordinary general meeting.

Article 61 The notice of any general meeting shall specify, among others:

- (i) time, place and duration of the meeting;
- (ii) matters and proposals submitted to the meeting for deliberation;
- (iii) stating with eye-catching words that each shareholder has the right to attend and vote at the general meeting in person or by proxy in writing, and the proxy does not need to be a shareholder of the Company;
- (iv) date of record for determining the shareholders' entitlement to attend the general meeting;
- (v) name and telephone number of the regular contact person for the meeting; and
- (vi) time and process of voting online or by other means.

Each notice or supplemental notice of general meeting shall sufficiently and completely disclose the specific contents of all proposals. If the matters to be discussed at the general meeting require the opinions of the Independent Non-executive Directors, the opinions and the reasons of such Independent Non-executive Directors shall be also disclosed simultaneously in such notice or supplemental notice of general meeting.

The interval between the date of record and the date of meeting shall comply with the regulations of the relevant securities regulatory authorities in the place where the Company's shares are listed, and the date of record shall not be changed after being fixed.

Article 62 If the election of any Director(s) or Supervisor(s) will be discussed at a general meeting, the notice of the general meeting shall specify the particulars of each Director or Supervisor candidate, which shall at least include:

- (i) education background, work experience, concurrent posts and other personal information;
- (ii) whether such candidate is affiliated with the controlling shareholder and de facto controllers of the Company;
- (iii) whether such candidate holds shares in the Company; and
- (iv) whether such candidate has been subject to any penalty imposed by the CSRC or other relevant authorities or any punishment imposed by any stock exchange.

Where the Director and Supervisor will be elected through cumulative voting, each Director or Supervisor candidate shall be nominated by a separate proposal.

Article 63 Subject to compliance with the relevant provisions of laws and regulations and the requirements of the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Shares are listed and the relevant procedures, the Company may issue notice of general meeting by means of publication on the Company's website and/or the website designated by the SEHK or in such other manners as permitted under the HK Listing Rules and these Articles.

Article 64 After the notice of a general meeting has been issued, the meeting shall not be adjourned or cancelled without justifiable reason, and no proposal set forth in the notice of meeting shall be cancelled. If the meeting needs to be adjourned or cancelled, the convener shall publish an announcement at least two (2) working days prior to the originally scheduled date of meeting, and explain the reason.

Section V Convening of General Meeting

Article 65 The Board and other conveners of the Company shall take necessary measures to guarantee the normal order of each general meeting and prevent any person from interfering with or provoking a fight at any general meeting or otherwise infringing on the legitimate rights and interests of the shareholders, and promptly refer any such act to the competent authorities for investigation and punishment.

Article 66 All ordinary shareholders registered on the date of record (including shareholders whose voting rights have been restored in respect of preference shares) or their proxies shall be entitled to attend general meetings and shall speak and exercise their voting rights in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations, the HK Listing Rules and these Articles.

A shareholder may attend and vote at any general meeting in person or by proxy.

Article 67 Any individual shareholders who attend the meeting in person should present their identity card or other valid documents or proofs that can indicate their identity and their stock account card. Any shareholders who attend the meeting by proxy should present their valid identity card and power of attorney.

The corporate shareholders shall attend the meeting by the legal representative or the proxy appointed by the legal representative. The legal representative who attends the meeting shall present his/her identity card and valid proof of his/her qualification as a legal representative. The proxy who attends the meeting shall present his/her identity card and a written power of attorney issued by the legal representative of the legal person shareholder under the law (except where the shareholder is a recognized clearing house or its proxy as defined in the relevant ordinance in force from time to time under the laws of Hong Kong).

If the shareholder is a recognized clearing house (or its proxy) as defined in the relevant ordinance in force from time to time under the laws of Hong Kong, it may authorize more than one person as it deems fit to act as its representative at any general meeting or meeting of any class of shareholders; provided that if more than one person is so authorized, the power of attorney shall specify the number and class of shares in respect of which such person is so authorized. Each of such power of attorney shall be signed by an authorized officer of that clearing house. A person so authorized shall be entitled to attend the meeting (without needing to present any share certificate, notarized authorization and/or any further evidence to prove that he/she has been duly authorized) and exercise the same powers on behalf of that clearing house (or its proxy) as if it were an individual shareholder of the Company.

Article 68 Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting may by power of attorney appoint one or more persons (who does not need to be a shareholder) as his/her proxy, to attend and vote at such meeting, and such power of attorney shall contain, among others:

- (i) name of the proxy;
- (ii) whether the proxy has the voting right;
- (iii) instructions on voting for or against or abstaining from voting on each matter listed on the agenda of the meeting;

- (iv) issue date and validity period of the power of attorney; and
- (v) signature or seal of the principal, or if the principal is a corporate shareholder, its common seal shall be affixed.

Article 69 Such power of attorney shall contain a statement that in the absence of instructions from the shareholders, whether or not his/her proxy may vote at his/her discretion.

Article 70 The power of attorney shall be deposited at the domicile of the Company or such other place as the notice of the general meeting may specify not less than twenty-four (24) hours prior to convening of the general meeting at which the relevant matters will be voted on, or twenty-four (24) hours before the designated voting time. The power of attorney or other authorization documents that is authorized signing shall be notarized if the power of attorney is signed by a person authorized by the appointing shareholder. The notarized power of attorney or other authorization documents and the power of attorney shall be kept at the Company's address or at such other place as specified in the notice convening the meeting.

Where the appointing shareholder is a legal person, its legal representative or the person authorized by the resolution of its Board of Directors or other governing bodies may attend the shareholders' general meeting of the Company as a representative of such appointing shareholder.

Article 71 The Company shall prepare a register of attendance of any general meeting, which shall at least contain the following information of each attendee: name of the attendee (or name of entity represented by him/her), his/her identity card number and address of domicile, number of voting shares held or represented by him/her and name of shareholder represented by him/her (or name of such shareholder's entity).

Article 72 The convener and the counsels appointed by the Company (if applicable) shall jointly verify the legality of the capacity of shareholders based on the register of shareholders, and register the name of and number of voting shares held by each shareholder. Such registration shall be completed before the chairperson of the meeting declares the number of shareholders attending the meeting in person or by proxy and the total number of voting shares held by them.

Article 73 All Directors, Supervisors and the Secretary of the Board of Directors shall attend, and the General Manager and other senior executives shall sit in on each general meeting.

Article 74 A general meeting shall be presided over by the Chairman, or if the Chairman is unable or fails to perform his/her duties, by one Director chosen by more than half the Directors.

A general meeting convened by the Supervisory Committee shall be presided over by the chairman of the Supervisory Committee, or if the chairman of the Supervisory Committee is unable or fails to perform his/her duties, by one Supervisor chosen by more than half the Supervisors.

A general meeting convened by any shareholder(s) shall be presided over by a representative appointed by the convener.

When convening a general meeting, if the chairperson of a general meeting violates the rules of procedure as a result of which the meeting is unable to proceed, with the consent of a majority of the shareholders with voting rights present at the meeting, the general meeting may appoint one person as the chairperson to continue the meeting.

Article 75 The Company shall establish rules of procedure for the general meeting, specifying the procedures for convening and voting at the general meeting, including, among others, notice, registration, deliberation of proposals, casting of votes, counting of votes, declaration of voting results, adoption of resolutions, meeting minutes and execution thereof, announcement, and principle of delegating powers to the Board of Directors by the general meeting, of which powers shall be clear and specific. The rules of procedure for the general meeting shall be prepared by the Board of Directors and approved by the general meeting, and constitute an exhibit to these Articles.

Article 76 At an annual general meeting, the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Committee shall report their respective work in the preceding year to the general meeting, and each Independent Non-executive Director shall deliver a work report.

Article 77 The Directors, Supervisors and senior executives shall provide explanations in respect of the inquiries and suggestions made by the shareholders at any general meeting.

Article 78 The chairperson of a general meeting shall, before the commencement of a vote, declare the number of the shareholders attending the meeting in person or by proxy and the total number of voting shares held by them, subject to the register of attendance of the meeting.

Article 79 The Secretary of the Board of Directors shall be responsible for preparing minutes of each general meeting, which shall contain, among others:

- (i) time, place and agenda and name of convener of the meeting;
- (ii) names of the chairperson, Directors, Supervisors, the General Manager and other senior executives attending the meeting;
- (iii) number of the shareholders attending the meeting in person or by proxy and the total number of voting shares held by them, and proportion of total shares of the Company represented by such shares;

- (iii) appointment and dismissal of the members of the Board of Directors and Supervisory Committee, and decision on remuneration and payment methods thereof;
- (iv) annual financial budget and final accounts of the Company;
- (v) annual report of the Company; and
- (vi) matters other than those requiring approval by special resolutions in accordance with laws, administrative regulations or these Articles.

Article 84 The following matters shall be resolved by way of special resolutions at a general meeting:

- (i) the increase or reduction of the Company's registered capital;
- (ii) division, spin-off, merger, dissolution and liquidation of the Company;
- (iii) amendments to these Articles;
- (iv) the Company's purchase or disposal of major assets or guarantee exceeding thirty percent (30%) of the latest audited total assets of the Company within one year;
- (v) share incentive schemes; and
- (vi) other matters stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed or these Articles and the rules of procedure of the general meeting, and the general meeting of shareholders adopting ordinary resolutions that are considered to have a significant impact on the Company, requiring approval by special resolutions.

Article 85 Every shareholder present in person or by proxy shall be entitled to one vote for each voting share held by him/her. When voting, a shareholder entitled to more than one vote, whether present in person or by proxy, needs not cast all affirmative or negative votes with his/her voting rights.

When deliberating any significant matter that affects the interests of small and medium-sized investors, the votes cast by such investors shall be counted separately, and the separate voting results shall be promptly and publicly disclosed in accordance with the relevant laws, regulations and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

The shares held by the Company shall not have voting rights, and such shares are not counted in the total number of voting shares held by the shareholders present at any general meeting in person or by proxy.

If a shareholder purchases any voting shares in violation of the provisions of Paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article 63 of the Securities Law, the shares exceeding the prescribed threshold shall not be entitled to voting right within thirty-six (36) months following the purchase thereof or counted in the total number of voting shares held by the shareholders present at a general meeting in person or by proxy.

If, pursuant to the applicable laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, normative documents and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, any shareholder is required to abstain from voting on, or restricted to voting only for or against, any particular resolution, any vote cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

The Board, Independent Non-executive Directors, shareholders of one percent (1%) or more of the shares in the Company, or any investor protection agency established pursuant to the relevant laws, administrative regulations and provisions of the CSRC may publicly solicit proxies from shareholders, provided that they shall fully disclose their intention towards the relevant voting, and shall not solicit proxies with compensation directly or in a disguised manner. The Company shall not impose any restriction on the solicitation of proxies, except for statutory conditions.

Article 86 A shareholder interested in any related-party transaction deliberated at a general meeting shall abstain from voting on such matter, the voting shares held by such shareholder shall not be counted in the valid total voting shares, and the announcement regarding the resolutions of the general meeting shall fully disclose the votes by the non-interested shareholders.

When the general meeting proceeds to deliberate such related-party transaction, the interested shareholder shall take the initiative to declare the nature of his/her interest and abstain from voting; and if he/she fails to do so, other shareholders may request him/her to declare the same and abstain from voting. The convener shall investigate whether such shareholder is an interested shareholder and whether such shareholder should abstain from voting according to the relevant regulations.

An interested shareholder who should abstain from voting may participate in the discussion about such transaction, and provide explanations about the reason for entry into such transaction, particulars of such transaction, and fairness and legality of such transaction at the general meeting.

If the interested shareholder is unable to abstain from voting due to any special circumstances, the vote may be held according to the normal procedures, provided that a detailed explanation shall be included in the resolutions of the general meeting.

After the end of the general meeting, if any shareholder discovers that any interested shareholder participated in the vote on any related-party transaction, or has an objection over the application of the abstention principle, such shareholder shall have the right to bring an action in respect of the relevant resolutions at the people's court in accordance with the provisions of these Articles.

Where the applicable laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, normative documents and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed contain any other provisions regarding the matters set forth in this Article 86, such provisions shall prevail.

Article 87 Unless the Company faces a crisis or falls into other special situations, without the approval of a special resolution by the general meeting, the Company shall not enter into any contract with any person other than the Directors, General Manager and other senior executives of the Company, pursuant to which, the Company will delegate the management of all or any important business of the Company to such person.

Article 88 The list of Director and Supervisor candidates shall be submitted to the general meeting for voting in the form of a proposal.

The Board shall publicly disclose the respective resumes and particulars of Director and Supervisor candidates to the shareholders. Each of the Director and Supervisor candidates shall covenant in writing that he/she accepts the nomination, his/her information disclosed publicly is true, accurate and complete, he/she meets the qualifications for the relevant post, and he/she will diligently perform his/her duties after being elected.

Method and procedure of nomination of Directors and Supervisors:

- (i) the Board of Directors and the shareholder(s) individually or collectively holding three percent (3%) or more of the shares in the Company shall have the right to nominate Non-independent Non-executive Director candidates, and after soliciting the opinions of such nominees and examining their qualifications, the Board of Directors shall submit a proposal to the general meeting;
- (ii) the Supervisory Committee and the shareholder(s) individually or collectively holding three percent (3%) or more of the shares in the Company shall have the right to nominate Non-independent Non-executive Supervisor candidates, and after soliciting the opinions of such nominees and examining their qualifications, the Supervisory Committee shall submit a proposal to the general meeting;

- (iii) the Board of Directors, the Supervisory Committee and the shareholder(s) individually or collectively holding one percent (1%) or more of the issued and outstanding voting shares in the Company shall have the right to nominate Independent Non-executive Director candidates, and after soliciting the opinions of such nominees and examining their qualifications, the Board of Directors shall submit a proposal to the general meeting.

When electing Directors and Supervisors at a general meeting, the cumulative voting system may be adopted pursuant to the relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, these Articles or the relevant resolutions of the general meeting. Under the cumulative voting system, in the election of two or more Directors or Supervisors at a general meeting, each share shall be entitled to such number of votes that is equal to the number of Directors or Supervisors to be elected, and a shareholder may allocate all of his/her votes to a single candidate. The Board shall publicly disclose the respective resumes and particulars of Director and Supervisor candidates to the shareholders.

Specific process of cumulative voting:

- (i) the election of and votes on the Independent Non-executive Directors, Non-independent Non-executive Directors and Supervisors shall be held separately;
- (ii) in the election of the Independent Non-executive Directors, each shareholder shall be entitled to such number of votes that is equal to the number of shares held by him/her multiplied by the number of available positions of the Independent Non-executive Directors; such votes may only be allocated to the Independent Non-executive Director candidates, and the candidates with the most votes will be elected;
- (iii) in the election of the Non-independent Non-executive Directors and the Supervisors, each shareholder shall be entitled to such number of votes that is equal to the number of shares held by him/her multiplied by the number of available positions of the Non-independent Non-executive Directors and the Supervisors; such votes may only be allocated to the Non-independent Non-executive Director and the Supervisor candidates, and the candidates with the most votes will be elected;
- (iv) if the number of candidates exceeds the number specified herein, the number of the Independent Non-executive Directors, Non-independent Non-executive Directors and Supervisors elected by each shareholder shall not exceed the respective number of the Independent Non-executive Directors, Non-independent Non-executive Directors and Supervisors specified herein, and the total number of votes cast by him/her shall not exceed the number of votes that he/she is entitled to. Otherwise, the votes cast by such shareholder shall be invalid; and

- (v) the scrutineer(s) and teller(s) at the general meeting shall carefully examine the compliance with the foregoing provisions, to ensure the fairness and validity of the cumulative voting.

Article 89 Except for the cumulative voting system, votes on proposals shall be taken one by one at a general meeting, and if there are different proposals regarding the same matter, vote on such proposals shall be taken in order of time of submission thereof. Unless the general meeting is discontinued or fails to adopt any resolution due to any force majeure or other special reasons, the general meeting shall not put on hold or refrain from voting on any proposal.

Article 90 No proposal deliberated at a general meeting shall be amended; otherwise, the relevant amendment shall be deemed a new proposal, which shall not be voted on at the same meeting.

Article 91 The same vote may only be cast once on site, online or by other means, provided that if the same vote is cast more than once, only the first vote will be deemed valid.

Article 92 Votes at a general meeting shall be cast in a registered manner.

Article 93 Before voting on any proposal, a general meeting shall choose two shareholders' representatives to participate in the votes counting or scrutinizing, provided that no such shareholders' representative shall be a shareholder who is interested in the subject matter of such proposal or his/her proxy.

The counsels (if applicable), shareholders' representatives and supervisors' representatives shall jointly count and scrutinize the votes cast on such proposal. The voting results shall be declared at the meeting and recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

The shareholders, who cast votes online or by other means, whether in person or by proxy, shall have the right to check their voting results through the relevant voting system.

Article 94 The on-site voting at a general meeting shall not end before voting online or by other means. The chairperson shall declare the result of voting on each proposal, and whether such proposal has been adopted accordingly.

Before the formal declaration of the result of any voting, the Company, teller(s), scrutineer(s), substantial shareholders, network service providers and other persons involved in voting on site, online or by other means shall have the obligation to keep confidential the information related to the voting.

Article 95 A shareholder attending any general meeting shall vote for or against or abstain from voting on each proposal submitted to the meeting for voting, except the Securities Depository and Clearing Institution, as a nominee holder under the Mainland-Hong Kong Stock Connect Scheme, may make declarations according to the intentions of the actual holders.

In the event of any vote that is uncompleted, erroneously completed or invalid, or fails to be cast, the shareholder casting or failing to cast the same shall be deemed to have waived his/her voting right, and the voting results of the shares held by him/her shall counted as “abstaining from voting”.

Article 96 If the chairperson of a general meeting has any doubt about the result of voting on any resolution, the chairperson may request the votes cast to be counted. If the chairperson does not request the votes to be counted, any shareholder attending the meeting in person or by proxy shall have the right to request the votes to be counted immediately after the result of voting is declared if such shareholder objects to the result of voting, in which case, the chairperson shall immediately have the votes counted.

Article 97 The resolutions of a general meeting shall be announced in a timely manner pursuant to the relevant laws, administrative regulations and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, and the announcement shall set forth the total number of shares entitled to attend and vote at the meeting, the total number of shares entitled to attend at the meeting but required to abstain from voting in favor pursuant to the Rule 13.40 of the HK Listing Rules, the total number of shares required to abstain from voting pursuant to the HK Listing Rules, the total number of shares voting in favor and the total number of shares voting against the resolution, among others.

Article 98 The resolutions of a general meeting shall specifically indicate any proposal that fails to be adopted at the meeting or any amendment to any resolution of the previous general meeting in the corresponding announcement.

Article 99 If a general meeting adopts any resolution on the appointment of Directors and Supervisors, the term of office of the newly appointed Directors and Supervisors shall commence from the date of adoption of the relevant resolution at the general meeting.

Article 100 Any resolution on the distribution of cash or stock dividends or capitalization of capital reserve adopted at a general meeting shall be implement by the Company within two (2) months after the end of the meeting.

Chapter V Board of Directors

Section I Directors

Article 101 Each Director of the Company shall be a natural person. No Director of the Company shall be a person who:

- (i) does not have capacity or only has limited capacity for civil conduct;
- (ii) has been subject to any criminal penalty due to embezzlement, bribery, encroachment, misappropriation of properties or disruption of the order of socialist market economy or been deprived of his/her political rights, and has completed his/her sentence not more than five (5) years;
- (iii) has been the director, factory manager or general manager of any company or enterprise that went bankrupt and was liquidated not more than three (3) years, and is personally liable for the bankruptcy of such company or enterprise;
- (iv) has been the legal representative of any company or enterprise that had its business license revoked and was ordered to be closed down due to violation of law not more than three (3) years, and is personally liable for such violation;
- (v) owes a large amount of debts due and unpaid;
- (vi) has been and is still being banned by the CSRC from entering the stock market;
or
- (vii) is otherwise disqualified to serve as a Director of the Company pursuant to the applicable laws, administrative regulations and department rules.

The election and appointment of any Director in violation of the provisions of this Article shall be invalid and void. Any Director who becomes disqualified during his/her term of office pursuant to this Article 101 shall be removed by the Company.

Article 102 Directors shall be elected or replaced at the general meeting and may be removed at the general meeting prior to the expiration of their term of office. The term of office of the Directors is three (3) years and they are eligible for re-election at the end of the term. However, the re-appointment of Independent Non-executive Director shall be deliberated and approved by the shareholders by way of a separate resolution if the relevant Independent Non-executive Director has served for more than nine (9) years. The document accompanying the resolution to the shareholders should state the reasons why the Board of Directors (or the Nomination Committee) considers that the Director remains independent and should be re-elected, including the factors considered as well as the process and the discussion by which the Board of Directors (or the Nomination Committee) made such decision.

The term of office of the Directors shall be counted from the date of appointment until the expiration of the term of the current Board of Directors. When the Directors' term expires and re-election is not held in time, or where the resignation of a Director during his term of office causes the number of the members of the Board of Directors to be less than the quorum, the original Directors shall still perform their duties as Directors in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and these Articles before the re-elected Directors take office.

Subject to the relevant laws and administrative regulations, the general meeting may by ordinary resolution remove any Director during his/her term of office (but without prejudice to any right to damages pursuant to any contract).

The General Manager or other senior executives may serve as Director(s) concurrently, provided that the total number of Directors who are the General Manager or other senior executives concurrently or employees' representatives shall not exceed one half (1/2) of the total number of Directors of the Company.

The Board shall not have any Director who is an employees' representative.

Any person appointed by the Board of Directors as a Director to fill a casual vacancy or as addition to the Board of Directors shall hold office only until the next following annual general meeting of the Company, and shall then be eligible for re-election. Subject to the applicable laws and regulations, and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company is listed, if the Board of Directors appoints any new Director to fill a casual vacancy of the Board of Directors, such Director shall be subject to election by the shareholders at the general meeting immediately following his/her acceptance of the appointment.

Article 103 Subject to the relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and these Articles, each Director owes fiduciary duties to the Company and shall:

- (i) not take advantage of his/her powers to accept bribes or other illegal payments or encroach on the properties of the Company;
- (ii) not misappropriate any funds of the Company;
- (iii) not deposit any assets or funds of the Company in any account opened in his/her name or the name of any other person;
- (iv) not lend any funds of the Company to any person or provide any guarantee for any person on the security of any properties of the Company in violation of these Articles or without the approval of the general meeting or the Board of Directors;
- (v) not enter into contracts or transactions with the Company in violation of these Articles or without the approval of the general meeting;

- (vi) not take advantage of his/her position in the Company to seek any business opportunities for himself/herself or any other person that should be attributable to the Company, or engage in any business same as the business of the Company himself/herself or for the benefit of any other person without the approval of the general meeting;
- (vii) not receive any commission in any transaction with the Company;
- (viii) not disclose any secrets of the Company without authorization;
- (ix) not use his/her affiliation with the Company to the detriment of the interests of the Company; and
- (x) perform such other fiduciary duties as set forth in the relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and these Articles.

Any Director violating the provisions of this Article shall surrender the proceeds derived therefrom to the Company and indemnify the Company for the losses arising therefrom.

Article 104 Subject to the relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and these Articles, each Director has a duty of care to the Company and shall:

- (i) prudently, seriously and diligently exercise the powers granted by the Company to ensure that the business activities of the Company comply with the applicable laws, administrative regulations and economic policies of the State, and fall within the scope of business set forth in the business license of the Company;
- (ii) fairly treat all shareholders;
- (iii) understand the situations of management and operation of the business of the Company;
- (iv) sign to confirm the regular reports of the Company in writing, and ensure the authenticity, accuracy and completeness of the information disclosed by the Company;
- (v) truthfully provide the relevant information and documents to the Supervisory Committee, and not interfere with the exercise of powers and duties by the Supervisory Committee and the Supervisors; and
- (vi) perform such other duties of care as set forth in the relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and these Articles.

Article 105 The Directors shall jointly and severally perform their fiduciary duties and act with due skill, care and diligence, and in performing such duties, they must at least comply with the standards set forth in the laws of Hong Kong, in particular:

- (i) act honestly and in good faith in the overall interests of the Company;
- (ii) act for proper purposes;
- (iii) be answerable to the listed issuer for the application or misapplication of its assets;
- (iv) avoid actual and potential conflicts of interest and duty;
- (v) disclose fully and fairly his/her interests in contracts entered into with the listed issuer; and
- (vi) act with such degree of skill, care and diligence as may be reasonably expected of a person of his/her knowledge and experience and serving as a director of a listed issuer.

Article 106 If any Director fails to attend in person or appoint another Director to attend on his/her behalf two consecutive Board Meetings, such Director shall be deemed to be unable to perform his/her duties and the Board of Directors shall propose removal of such director to the general meeting.

Article 107 A Director may submit his/her resignation to the Board of Directors in writing prior to the expiration of his/her term of office, in which case, the Board of Directors shall disclose the relevant information within two (2) days.

If the resignation of any Director causes the number of Board members to be less than the quorum, or if such Director is an Independent Non-executive Director, the number of Independent Non-executive Directors to be less than one third (1/3) of the total number of members of the Board of Directors, or there is no professional accountant among the Independent Non-executive Directors, the resignation of such

The resigning Director shall state in his/her letter of resignation the time of resignation, reason of resignation, the posts he/she will resign, and whether he/she will continue to hold any post, and what posts he/she will continue to hold, in the Company and its controlled subsidiaries, among others. The provisions of this Article 107 regarding letter of resignation shall mutatis mutandis apply to the resignation of the Supervisors and senior executives.

Article 108 Any Director whose resignation has taken effect or term of office has expired shall perform all necessary hand-over procedures with the Board of Directors, and continue to be bound by the obligation to keep confidential the trade secrets of the Company until the relevant trade secrets have been made public, and other duties of loyalty to the Company and the shareholders shall remain valid till three (3) years after he/she terminates service with the Company.

The provisions of this Article regarding the obligation of confidentiality and duty of fiduciary of the outgoing Directors shall mutatis mutandis apply to the Supervisors and senior executives.

Article 109 Subject to the provisions of these Articles, no Director shall act on behalf of the Company or the Board of Directors in his/her own name without lawful authorization of the Board of Directors. If any third party reasonably believes that a Director is acting on behalf of the Company or the Board of Directors, such Director shall make clear his/her position and identity in advance.

Article 110 In the event any violation by a Director of the relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed or these Articles in performing his/her duties in the Company, such Director shall indemnify the Company for the losses arising therefrom.

Article 111 The Independent Non-executive Directors shall be governed by the relevant laws, administrative regulations and provisions of the CSRC and the stock exchanges of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

Section II Independent Non-Executive Directors

Article 112 An Independent Non-executive Director is a Director who does not hold any office other than Director in the Company, or have any relationship with the Company and its substantial shareholders which could prevent him/her from making an independent and objective judgment, and meets the requirements for independence set forth in the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

The Board shall have Independent Non-executive Directors. The number of Independent Non-executive Directors shall not be less than three (3), and not be less than one third (1/3) of the total members of the Board of Directors, of whom, at least one of the Independent Non-executive Directors shall have appropriate professional qualifications or accounting or related financial management expertise, and at least one of the Independent Non-executive Directors shall be ordinarily resident in Hong Kong.

If, at any time, the Independent Non-executive Directors of the Company cease to meet the requirements of the HK Listing Rules regarding the number, qualifications or independence of Independent Non-executive Directors, the Company shall immediately notify the SEHK, and publish an announcement, setting out the relevant circumstances and reasons, and within three (3) months after non-compliance with relevant regulations of the HK Listing Rules, appoint sufficient number of Independent Non-executive Directors to satisfy the relevant requirements of the HK Listing Rules.

Article 113 The Independent Non-executive Directors shall perform their duties in accordance with the relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, normative documents and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

The Company shall formulate the terms of reference for Independent Non-executive Directors, which shall set forth, among others, the qualifications, nomination, election, replacement, rights and obligations of the Independent Non-executive Directors, and be submitted to the general meeting for approval.

Article 114 In the absence of explicit provisions in this Section regarding Independent Non-executive Directors, the provisions of the relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, normative documents, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, and these Articles regarding Directors of the Company shall apply.

Section III Board of Directors

Article 115 The Company shall have a Board of Directors which shall be accountable to the general meeting.

Article 116 The Board of Directors shall consist of no less than seven (7) Directors with one (1) as Chairman.

Article 117 The Board of Directors exercises the following powers and duties:

- (i) to convene a general meeting and submit a work report to such meeting;
- (ii) to implement the resolutions of a general meeting;
- (iii) to decide on the operation plan and investment scheme of the Company;

- (iv) to prepare the draft annual budget and final accounts of the Company;
- (v) to prepare the profit distribution plan and loss recovery plan of the Company;
- (vi) to prepare the plan for the Company to increase or reduce its registered capital, issuance of bonds or other securities and listing plans;
- (vii) to prepare plans for the material acquisitions by the Company, acquisition of the Company's shares under the circumstances specified in items (i) and (ii) of Article 24 of these Articles, the merger, division, dissolution and change of the form of the Company;
- (viii) to decide on the Company's outbound investments, acquisition and sale of assets, pledge of assets, external guarantees, entrusted financial management, connected transactions and external donations in accordance with the provisions of laws, regulations and securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed or within the scope of authorization of the general meeting;
- (ix) to decide, by resolution at a meeting of the Board of Directors attended by more than two-thirds (2/3) of the Directors, the plan to acquire the Company's shares under the circumstances specified in items (iii), (v) and (vi) of Article 24 of these Articles;
- (x) to decide on the establishment of the in

- (xvii) to exercise other powers and duties conferred by relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental regulations, the securities regulatory rules of the stock exchange of the place where the Company's shares are listed or these Articles.

Any matters that are beyond the scope of authorization of the general meeting shall be submitted for deliberation at the general meeting.

Article 118 If the certified public accountant appointed by the Company issues a modified audit opinion on any financial report of the Company, the Board of Directors shall explain the reasons to the general meeting.

Article 119 The Board shall establish its rules of procedure to ensure the implementation of the resolutions of the general meeting, improve its efficiency and make scientific decisions.

Article 120 The Board shall define the authority and establish stringent review and decision-making procedures in respect of outbound investments, acquisition and sale of assets, pledge of assets, external guarantees, entrusted financial management, connected transactions and external donations, and with respect to any material investment, organize the relevant experts and professionals to review and assess such investment, and report the same to the general meeting for approval.

Article 121 The Board shall have one (1) chairman, who shall be elected by a majority of the Directors.

Article 122 The Chairman shall exercise the following powers and duties:

- (i) to preside over the general meetings and convene and preside over the Board Meetings;
- (ii) to supervise and examine the implementation of the resolutions of the Board of Directors;
- (iii) to execute the documents of the Board of Directors and other documents required to be executed by the legal representative of the Company;
- (iv) in case of any extremely severe natural disaster, force majeure or emergency, to exercise the special right to dispose of the affairs of the Company for the benefit of the Company according to law, and report to the Board of Directors and the general meeting afterwards; and
- (v) to exercise other powers and duties delegated by the Board of Directors.

Article 123 If the Chairman is unable or fails to perform his/her duties, more than half the Directors may elect one of the directors to act on his/her behalf.

Article 124 The Board shall meet regularly, but in any event at least four (4) times each year, or about once a quarter. The Board Meetings shall be convened by the Chairman, by giving fourteen (14) days' written notice to all Directors and Supervisors.

Article 125 The Chairman shall, on requisition of the shareholders representing one tenth (1/10) or more of the voting rights of the Company, or one third (1/3) or more of the Directors, or the Supervisory Committee, or two (2) or more Independent Non-executive Directors, or the General Manager, convene and preside over an Extraordinary Board Meeting within ten (10) days after receiving such requisition.

Article 126 The notice of an Extraordinary Board Meeting may be given in person, by post, facsimile, email or otherwise specified herein, three (3) days prior to the date of meeting.

Notwithstanding the notice period set forth above, if an Extraordinary Board Meeting needs to be held as soon as possible in case of any emergency, the meeting notice may be given by telephone or orally at any time, provided that the convener shall provide an explanation at the meeting.

Article 127 The notice of a Board Meeting shall at least specify:

- (i) date and place of the meeting;
- (ii) duration of the meeting;
- (iii) subject matter and topics of the meeting; and
- (iv) date of notice.

Article 128 No Board Meeting shall be held unless a majority of Directors is present at such meeting. Any resolution of the Board must be approved by a majority of Directors.

Each Director shall have one vote for any resolution of the Board.

Article 129 The Board may accept a written proposal in lieu of holding a Board Meeting, provided that the draft of such proposal shall be delivered to each Director in person, by post, facsimile or email. Such proposal shall become a resolution of the Board after it has been delivered by the Board to all Directors, the number of Directors who have signed to consent to such proposal constitutes a required quorum for making a resolution, and the executed copies of such proposal have been delivered to the Secretary of the Board in such manner as set forth above, and shall be as effective as a resolution of the Board passed at a meeting held in accordance with the provisions of these Articles.

No regular meeting of the Board shall be held in the manner set forth in the first paragraph of this Article 129.

Article 130 Any Director, Supervisor, General Manager or other senior executive who is, whether directly or indirectly, materially interested in any established or proposed contract, transaction or arrangement with the Company (except for their employment contract with the Company) shall promptly disclose the nature and degree of his/her interest to the Board, regardless of whether the relevant matter requires the approval of the Board under normal circumstances.

Save for the circumstances permitted by the HK Listing Rules and applicable regulations, the Directors shall not vote on any resolutions of the Board in respect of approving a contract, transaction or arrangement or any other related proposal in which these Directors or any of their close associates (as defined in the applicable HK Listing Rules in force from time to time) have a material interest. The Directors concerned shall also not be counted for the purpose of determining whether a quorum is present. A Board Meeting may be held with the attendance of a majority of the disinterested Directors, and the resolutions made at a Board Meeting shall be approved by a majority of the disinterested Directors. The matter shall be submitted to the general meeting for deliberation if the number of disinterested Directors present at the Board Meeting is less than three (3).

Unless the interested Director, Supervisor, General Manager or other senior executive has disclosed his/her interest to the Board in accordance with the requirements of the first paragraph of this Article, and the Board has approved such matter at a meeting in which he/she has not been counted a quorum, and has abstained from voting thereon, the Company shall have the right to cancel the relevant contract, transaction or arrangement, except that the counterparty is a bona fide party who did not know the violation of obligation by such Director, Supervisor, General Manager or other senior executives.

Any Director, Supervisor, General Manager or other senior executive shall also be deemed interested in a contract, transaction or arrangement if any of his/her related persons has an interest therein.

If a substantial shareholder (as defined in the applicable HK Listing Rules in force from time to time) or a Director has a conflict of interest in a matter to be considered by the Board which the Board has determined to be material, the matter should be dealt with by a physical Board Meeting rather than a written resolution. Independent non-executive Directors, and whose close associates (as defined in the applicable HK Listing Rules in force from time to time), have no material interest in the transaction should be present at that Board Meeting.

Article 131 Any resolution put to vote at a meeting of the Board shall be decided by a registered vote.

At an Extraordinary Board Meeting, to the extent that the Directors have sufficient opportunities to express their opinions, a resolution may be adopted by facsimile or other means and signed by the Directors attending the meeting.

Article 132 A Director shall attend each meeting of the Board in person, or if he/she is unable to attend the meeting due to any reason, he/she may entrust any other Director in writing to attend on behalf of him/her. Such instrument of proxy shall specify the name of proxy, matters authorized, powers delegated and validity term, among others, and be signed or stamped by the principal. A Director attending a meeting as the proxy of another Director shall exercise the rights of a Director within the powers delegated by the principal. Any Director who fails to attend a Board Meeting in person or by proxy shall be deemed to have waived his/her voting rights at such meeting.

Article 133 The Board shall cause minutes to be made in respect of its decisions on the matters discussed at each meeting, which shall be signed by all Directors present at such meeting.

The meeting minutes of the Board shall be placed on file of the Company for a period of not less than ten (10) years.

Article 134 The minutes of a Board Meeting shall contain, among others:

- (i) date, place and name of convener of the meeting;
- (ii) names of the Directors present at the meeting and the Directors (proxies) attending the meeting on behalf of other Directors;
- (iii) agenda of the meeting;
- (iv) key points of the speeches delivered by each Director; and
- (v) method and result of voting on each resolution (including the number of votes for and against and abstentions).

Section IV Special Committees of the Board

Article 135 The Board shall set up the Strategy Committee, the Audit Committee, the Nomination Committee and the Remuneration and Appraisal Committee. Such Committees shall be accountable to the Board, perform their respective duties delegated by these Articles and the Board, and submit their proposals to the Board for deliberation.

All members of each Special Committee shall be Directors. The Independent Non-executive Directors shall constitute a majority of members, and act as the conveners, of the Audit Committee, the Nomination Committee and the Remuneration and Appraisal Committee. All members of the Audit Committee shall be non-executive Directors, and its convener shall be a professional accountant and have appropriate professional qualifications or accounting or related financial management expertise as set forth in the HK Listing Rules. The Board shall be responsible for formulating the terms of reference of the Special Committees to regulate their operation.

Chapter VI General Manager and Other Senior Management Members

Article 136 The Company shall have one (1) General Manager, who shall be appointed or removed by the Board.

The Company shall have several Deputy General Managers, one (1) Chief Financial Officer and one (1) Board secretary, all of whom shall be appointed or removed by the Board.

The General Manager, Deputy General Managers, Chief Financial Officer and the Secretary of the Board shall be the senior executives of the Company.

Article 137 Article 101 hereof in relation to the circumstances under which a person may not serve as a Director shall mutatis mutandis apply to the senior executives.

The provisions of Article 103 regarding the duty of loyalty of Directors and the provisions of items (iv), (v) and (vi) of Article 104 regarding the duty of care of Directors shall mutatis mutandis apply to the senior executives.

Article 138 Any person who holds any administrative office (other than director or supervisor) in the controlling shareholder group of the Company shall not hold any office of senior executives in the Company concurrently.

The senior executives may receive their remunerations from the Company only, rather than from the controlling shareholder of the Company.

Article 139 The General Manager shall have a term of office of three (3) years and may serve consecutive terms upon reappointment.

Article 140 The General Manager of the Company is accountable to the Board of Directors and shall exercise the following powers and duties:

- (i) to be in charge of managing the Company's production and operation, organize the implementation of resolutions of the Board of Directors, and report to the Board of Directors;
- (ii) to organize the implementation of annual operating plans and investment scheme of the Company;
- (iii) to formulate internal management organization plan;
- (iv) to formulate a basic management system of the Company;
- (v) to formulate specific management system;
- (vi) to advise to the Board of Directors on the appointment or dismissal of the Deputy General Managers and the Chief Financial Officer;

- (vii) to decide on the appointment or dismissal of senior executives of the Company other than those who should be appointed or dismissed by the Board of Directors; and
- (viii) other powers and duties prescribed by these Articles and authorized by the Board of Directors;

The General Manager may present as a nonvoting delegate at meetings of the Board of Directors.

Article 141 The General Manager shall prepare the terms of reference for the General Manager, and implement the same upon approval by the Board of Directors.

Article 142 The terms of reference for the General Manager shall specify, among others:

- (i) conditions for convening, proceedings at and attendees of the meetings by the General Manager;
- (ii) respective duties and responsibilities and division of labor of the General Manager and other senior executives;
- (iii) application of the funds and assets of the Company, authority to enter into material contracts, and the system for reporting to the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Committee; and
- (iv) other matters that the Board of Directors deems necessary.

Article 143 The General Manager may resign office prior to the expiration of his/her term of office, subject to the procedures and method of resignation set forth in his/her contract with the Company.

Article 144 The Deputy General Manager shall be appointed or removed by the Board of Directors, assist the General Manager in his/her work, and be accountable to the General Manager.

Article 145 The Company has one (1) Secretary of the Board of Directors who is responsible for matters such as preparing the Company's general meetings and Board Meetings, safekeeping documents, managing the information of the Company's shareholders and handling information disclosure.

The Secretary of the Board of Directors shall comply with the relevant provisions of the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and these Articles.

Article 146 Any senior executive who violates the relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or these Articles in performing his/her duties in the Company shall indemnify the Company for the losses arising therefrom.

Article 147 The senior executives shall faithfully perform their duties, and safeguard the best interests of the Company and all shareholders. Any senior executive who fails to faithfully perform his/her duties or breaches the fiduciary duty shall indemnify the Company and the public shareholders for the damages arising therefrom according to law.

Chapter VII Supervisory Committee

Section I Supervisors

Article 148 Article 101 hereof in relation to the circumstances under which a person may not serve as a Director shall mutatis mutandis apply to the Supervisors.

None of the Directors, the General Manager or other senior executives of the Company shall hold the post of Supervisor concurrently.

Article 149 A Supervisor shall abide by applicable laws and administrative regulations and the provisions hereof, have the duty of loyalty and duty of care to the Company, and shall not take advantage of his/her powers to accept bribes or other illegal payments or encroach on the properties of the Company.

Article 150 The term of office of a Supervisor is three (3) years and they are eligible for re-election at the end of the term.

Article 151 If the successor of a Supervisor is not appointed upon expiration of his/her term of office or a Supervisor resigns office prior to the expiration of his/her term of office, which causes the number of members of the Supervisory Committee to be less than the quorum, such Supervisor shall continue to perform his/her duties in accordance with the relevant laws, administrative regulations and these Articles until his/her successor is appointed and takes office.

Article 152 The Supervisors shall ensure the authenticity, accuracy and completeness of the information disclosed by the Company, and sign to confirm the regular reports of the Company in writing.

Article 153 The Supervisors may present the Board Meetings as a nonvoting delegate and inquire about or put forward suggestions on any resolution of the Board of Directors.

Article 154 Any Supervisor who violates the relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or these Articles in performing his/her duties in the Company shall indemnify the Company for the losses arising therefrom.

Article 155 A Supervisor shall not take advantage of his/her affiliation with the Company to the detriment of the interests

Section II Supervisory Committee

Article 156 The Company shall establish a Supervisory Committee. The Supervisory Committee consists of three (3) members, one (1) of which is the employee representative Supervisor. The Supervisory Committee shall have a chairman, who is elected by the majority votes of the members of the Supervisory Committee. The chairman shall be appointed or dismissed by the votes of two thirds or more of the members of the Supervisory Committee.

The meetings of the Supervisory Committee shall be convened and presided over by the chairman of the Supervisory Committee, or if he/she is unable or fails to do so, by one Supervisor elected by more than half the Supervisors.

The Supervisory Committee shall include shareholders' representatives and an appropriate proportion of employees' representatives, of which the proportion of employees' representatives shall not be less than one-third (1/3). The employees' representatives in the Supervisory Committee shall be democratically elected by the employees of the Company through staff assemblies, staff meetings or other means.

Article 157 The Supervisory Committee exercises the following powers and duties:

- (i) to review the report regularly prepared by the Board of Directors and provide written audit opinions;
- (ii) to review the financial position of the Company;
- (iii) to supervise the performance of Directors and senior executives in fulfilling their duties to the Company, and propose dismissal of Directors and senior executives that have violated laws, administrative regulations, these Articles or resolutions of the general meeting;
- (iv) to demand rectification by Directors and senior executives of the Company when the acts of such persons are prejudicial to the Company's interests;
- (v) to propose the convening of an extraordinary general meeting, and convene and preside over the shareholders' meeting when the Board of Directors fails to perform such duties provided by the Company Law;
- (vi) to submit proposals to shareholders' general meetings;
- (vii) to initiate litigations against Directors and senior executives in accordance with provisions set out in Article 151 of the Company Law;
- (viii) to investigate if unusual business operation is found in the Company and, if necessary, an accounting firm, law firm or any other professional organization may be engaged at the expense of the Company to assist its work.

Article 158 The Supervisory Committee shall meet at least once every six months. An extraordinary meeting of the Supervisory Committee may be convened on requisition of a Supervisor.

Resolutions of the Supervisory Committee shall require approval from no less than two-thirds (2/3) of the Supervisors.

Article 159 The Supervisory Committee shall establish its rules of procedure, defining its method of discussion and voting procedures, to improve its efficiency and make scientific decisions.

The rules of procedure of the Supervisory Committee shall set forth the procedures to convene, and voting procedures at, meetings of Supervisory Committee, which shall be prepared by the Supervisory Committee and approved by the general meeting, and constitute an exhibit to these Articles.

Article 160 The Supervisory Committee shall cause minutes to be made in respect of its decisions on the matters discussed at each meeting, which shall be signed by the Supervisors present at such meeting.

A Supervisor shall have right to request certain explanatory notes to be made in the meeting minutes regarding his/her speeches at the meeting. The meeting minutes of the Supervisory Committee shall be placed on file of the Company for a period of not less than ten (10) years.

Article 161 The notice of a meeting of the Supervisory Committee shall at least specify:

- (i) date, place and duration of the meeting;
- (ii) subject matter and topics of the meeting; and
- (iii) date of notice.

Chapter VIII Financial and Accounting System, Profit Distribution and Audit

Section I Financial and Accounting System

Article 162 The Company shall establish its financial and accounting system in accordance with relevant laws, administrative regulations and requirements of the relevant authorities under the State.

Article 163 The Company shall prepare a financial report at the end of each financial year, and such financial report shall be audited and verified.

The Company shall file, disclose and/or submit documents such as annual report, interim report, preliminary results announcement to shareholders in accordance with the laws and regulations of the place of listing, the listing rules of the stock exchange of the place where the Company's shares are listed and other regulatory documents.

Article 164 The Company shall not keep any account book other than statutory account books. The Company's assets shall not be deposited in any account opened in the name of any individual.

Article 165 The Company shall appropriate ten percent (10%) of the after-tax profits of each year as the statutory provident fund before distributing profits for such year; provided, however, when the accumulated statutory provident fund has exceeded fifty percent (50%) (inclusive) of the registered capital of the Company, such appropriation may be suspended.

If the statutory provident fund of the Company is insufficient to cover the loss in prior years, the profit in the current year shall be first applied to make up such loss before appropriation of the statutory provident fund as stated above.

After appropriating the statutory provident fund from the after-tax profits, the Company may, by resolution of the general meeting, further appropriate other surplus reserve from the after-tax profits.

Unless otherwise provided herein, the remaining after-tax profits after making up the losses and appropriating the provident fund shall be distributed to the shareholders in proportion to their respective shareholdings.

If the general meeting resolves to distribute any profits to the shareholders before making up the losses and appropriating the provident fund in violation of the preceding provisions, the shareholders shall return such profits distributed to the Company.

The shares held by the Company shall not involve any profit distribution.

Article 166 The provident fund of the Company are appropriated for purpose of making up the losses or expanding production and operation of the Company or being capitalized; provided, however, no capital provident fund shall be applied to make up any loss of the Company.

In any capitalization of the statutory provident fund, the remaining statutory provident fund shall not be less than twenty-five percent (25%) of the Company's registered capital immediately prior to such capital increase through provident fund transfer.

Article 167 After the general meeting adopts a resolution on any profit distribution proposal, the Board of Directors shall distribute the relevant dividends (or shares) within two (2) months after such meeting ends.

Article 168 The Company may distribute dividends in the form of cash or stock, as follows:

- (i) Principles of profit distribution: Each share of the Company shall be entitled to the same dividends, and the shareholders shall receive dividends and other profit distributions in proportion to their respective shareholdings. The Company adopts a positive policy as regards profit distribution, strives to provide a reasonable returns on investment to the investors, and maintains the continuity and stability of the returns. The Company may distribute profits in the form of cash or stock, provided that the profits shall be distributed to the limit of aggregate profits distributable, and to the extent that the ability of the Company to continue as a going concern shall not be impaired.
